Starter Toolkit: Launching a School Reading Club

A practical 4-week playbook for teachers, librarians, and OSIS student leaders inspired by LLL Goes to School.

Week 1: Form a Small Core Circle

Start with 8-15 enthusiastic students rather than waiting for an entire grade. Elect two student coordinators and one teacher advisor. Pick a friendly meeting corner with natural daylight.

Week 2: Curate Accessible Starter Books

- Mix Indonesian contemporary fiction (such as Di Tanah Lada, Dompet Ayah Sepatu Ibu, or Entrok), graphic stories (Look Back), and inspiring biographies.
- Allow students to vote on the first shared title so members feel genuine ownership.
- Encourage 15 minutes of daily reading instead of intimidating page quotas.

Week 3-4: Run Joyful Discussions & Publish Reviews

- Open sessions with one favorite sentence each member highlighted that week.
- Invite students to turn discussion notes into 300-word reviews for school wall magazines, Kompasiana, or Long Live Literacy Journal.
- Partner with LLL Goes to School to host Literacy in Action, Public Speaking, or OSIS Event Planning sessions.
